

Online University Lectures

2026
JULY
11TH SAT

Join us for mock lectures from our English-medium undergraduate programs! Each session includes a program introduction, a 30-minute mock lecture, and a Q&A section. Conducted in English, this is a good chance to learn something new and experience university life firsthand!

1 11:00AM - 12:00PM (JST)

Tackling Global Risks

- American University - Ritsumeikan University Joint Degree Program (JDP) and Global Studies Major (GS), College of International Relations

2 12:00PM - 01:00PM (JST)

Development of Intercultural Competence Through Learning Across Cultures

- Dual degree program with The Australian National University, College of Global Liberal Arts (GLA)

3 01:00PM - 02:00PM (JST)

Intergovernmental Relations from a Comparative Perspective: How to Manage Local Systems

- Community and Regional Policy Studies Major (CRPS), College of Policy Science

4 02:00PM - 03:00PM (JST)

From Pixels to Photogrammetry, from Vertices to Virtual Reality: The Point as a Basic Unit in 3D Computer Graphics

- Information Systems Science and Engineering Course (ISSE), College of Information Science and Engineering

